1. Introduction to everyone. Chad Chaney turned meeting over to Dwayne Braun general manager of ICM- Bio fuel. Dwayne talked to board members about having a training program for people who want to get into the Operating Engineer trade. Dwayne asked if the board would prefer on the job training or school training. Chad voiced that it would be better to have both due to everyone learns differently and at their own pace. Dwayne stated that he will be going to visit with the chamber of commerce to see if they would be willing to help with recruiting new Operating Engineers and also meet with Hillyards to see if they would be willing to work with creating a training program.
2. Keith Fortner with Rasmusson Mechanical spoke about new control systems and equipment that is coming out.
3. Hal spoke of multiple license fee and how the ordinance says that each license is to be charged. Hal asked they would like to make an ordinance change. Board members agreed to change ordinance to match practice.
4. Board members submitted 3 nomination forms for new board members.

Chad made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Vote was unanimous

Meeting was adjourned
